

RESIDENTIAL CUSTOMER TESTIMONIAL - April 15, 2015

Hello - My name is Jason Cobb.

“My rental house was hit with a flood last September. My insurance company recommended DALLASWHITE to me, as I live in Texas and my rental house is in Southern California. I can't be in two places at once so to make a long story short, September 11 of last year, I was introduced to their service manager Kent. If by chance any of you are lucky enough to have him work your job, I would not be surprised if you're anything other than 1000% happy with the work and ethics this young man has.

Most companies today say they're the best. Let me tell you, I've got nothing on Kent from DALLASWHITE. This project goes over a few months. First they fixed the house from the flood and then a few months later, I had to kick out my tenants and boy did they trash it. I was thinking I was going to spend thousands and thousands of dollars, but I called Kent back and he gave me a more than fair price to do something I was unable to do, being 1500 miles away and having no time to do it.

I had to totally have him paint the entire house to redo flooring, new granite countertops and hall away so much trash, old furniture and debris. I was thanking my stars I had him in my corner.

I thank you for all you have done. You not only saved me in the flood, but you have also from bad renters. Thank you. Good help is hard to find but what's even harder is finding people with integrity and boy do you have it!”
